

Gabriel Andreescu

Globalizing Hypocrisy. For a humanist approach to the ethics of memory¹

SUMMARY

Introduction

PART ONE

Chapter One - Hunting the Incorrect

Günter Grass: A Moral Suicide?

John J. Mearsheimer and the Top Ten of American Anti-Semites

David Irving. Retribution against a Historian-turned-Negationist

The Anti-Semitisation of a People. Poland, Present and Past

The Strategy of 'Russophobisation'

The 'Russophobia' of the Poles

Instrumentalisation of the 'Russophobia' Label under the Putin Régime

Chapter Two - The Holocaust, Uniqueness, the Working Definition of Anti-Semitism

The Uniqueness of the Holocaust

How do We Define the Holocaust and with what Consequences?

The 'Working' Definition of the Holocaust

The Thankless Context of the Militant Theories. The New Anti-Semitism and the Special Status of Israel

Chapter Three - The Militant Theories Wielded by Russia

Memory as Lending Meaning to Historical Events. Fake-meanings

The Meaning of the Ribbentrop-Molotov Pact

¹ Gabriel Andreescu, Globalizarea Ipocriziei. Pentru o abordare umannistă a eticii memoriei, Polirom, Iași, 2023.

The book was awarded:

The Leibniz Prize for Philosophy, offered by the Leibniz Society of Romania, 2024 edition

The "Nicolae Iorga" Prize of the Romanian Society of Historical Sciences, 2024 edition

The "Vasile Conta" Prize of the Romanian Academy, 2025 edition.

The translation from Romanian to English was made by British writer Alistar Blyth.

‘The Great Soviet People that fought to free the world from fascism’

Instrumentalisation of the Anti-Fascist and Anti-Nazi Discourse

Chapter Four - The Primordial Failure. The Avatars of the Drafting and Application of the Treaty for the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide

The Truncation of a Project: The Treaty adopted on 9 December 1948

The Situation of Political Groups

The Paradox of the International System: Remembrance of Genocides seems more Important than their Prevention

The Integration of ‘Memories’

Chapter Five – The Frustrations of Memory. Ideological and Ethnic Sensitivities

Narratives in the Shadow of the ‘Bronze Soldier’

The Lihula Monument

The Subject of Russophone Citizenship in Latvia

The Synergy of Sensitivities. The Theory of the Theory of Dual Genocide

National Sensitivities Confronted by History. The Poles, the Jews and the Baltics in the Second World War

The Persecution of Collective Memory

The Asymmetry of European Memory

Chapter Six – Methodological Comparativism

The Uniqueness of the Holocaust and Trivialisation by Comparison

Trivialisation of Communist Crimes by Rejection of Comparison

The International Doctrine of Comparativism

The Convergence of how Discrimination, Anti-Semitism and Negationism are Treated in the European Union

Towards a Theory of Methodological Comparativism

PART TWO

Chapter Seven - Towards a Humanist Approach to the Ethics of Memory

The ‘Politics of Memory’ in the Black Lives Matter Era. Symbolic Imprescriptability in Relation to the Principles of Civilised Nations

Caution, Discernment, Proportionality in the Politics of Moral Lustration

Searching for Justice and 'Institutionalising' it

Legal Re-evaluation in order to do Justice to the Victims

The Right to 'Victim Status'

The Aporias of the Ethics of Memory

The Mirror-image Cases of Stepan Bandera and Josip Broz Tito. When Asymmetry Creates an Ethical Dissonance of Memory Incompatible with Intelligence

The War in Ukraine: A Failure of the Politics of Memory with Geo-Political Consequences. The Corruption of Memory

Conclusions. Are a Universalist Ethics and Politics of Memory Possible?