

Scientific Council and Collaborators

Director

Gabriel ANDREESCU – PhD in political science from the National School of Political and Administrative Sciences. Associate Professor at the Doctoral School of Philosophy, Sociology and Political Science, Universitatea de Vest, Timișoara. Founder of APADOR-CH, founder and president of the Center for International Studies, Ombudspersons for National Minorities and Solidarity for Freedom of Conscience. Knight of the National Order” Steaua României”. Received among other distinctions the Petőfi Prize for the Freedom of the Peoples of Central Europe (XXI Century Foundation / Budapest), Pro Minority (Government of Hungary), the Human Rights Monitor Award (Human Rights Watch in USA)

* * *

Scientific Council

Lucian BOJIN – Doctor of Law. Professor at the Faculty of Law of the Universitatea de Vest, Timișoara. Author of several books and articles on human rights, constitutional law, organizational law and international public law (Commentaries on the Constitution of Romania, Polirom, 2010 – collective volume, Legal personality in organizational law, CH Beck, 2015 – received an award from the Society of Legal Sciences, Handbook of International Relations and Organizations for Law Students, Universitatea de Vest Publishing House, 2018). Lawyer in the Arad Bar Association.

Diana BOTĂU – Doctor of Law. Lecturer at the Faculty of Law of the “Babeș-Bolyai” University of Cluj-Napoca, where she is a professor of Public International Law and Comparative Law. Author of several books and articles in the field of public international law, human rights, European Union law, including: Application of international law in the subsystem of the European Convention on Human Rights. The Kononov case, Ed. Hamangiu, 2013; The International Doctrine of Dealing with the Communist Past, Ed. C.H. Beck, 2016 (co-authored with Gabriel Andreescu and Măriuca Oana Constantin); International law. General section (co-authored with Vanlentin Constantin – received awards from the Union of Jurists of Romania and the “Babeș-Bolyai” University). Lawyer in the Cluj Bar Association.

Aurora CIUCĂ – PhD in Law from the “Al. I. Cuza” University, Master’s Degree “cum laude” in International and Human Rights Law, “Notre Dame” University U.S.A., professor at the “Stefan cel Mare” University of Suceava, member of the Board of Directors of the “Equal Chances for Women” Foundation Iasi, member of the Société Française pour le Droit International.

Gelu DUMINICĂ – PhD in sociology from the University of Bucharest. Associate Professor at the Faculty of Sociology and Social Work of the University of Bucharest. Executive Director of the Foundation Agenția „Împreună”. He was a consultant for the National Agency for Roma of the Romanian Government between 2006 and 2007, member of the Presidential Commission for Social and Demographic Risk Analysis, member of the Economic and Social Council, member of the Board of Directors of the Bucharest branch of the National College of Social Workers in Romania. Between 2000 and 2020 he contributed as an expert and manager to over 50 community development and social inclusion projects in disadvantaged areas.

Rodoljub ETINSKI – Visiting Professor at Donja Gorica University, Podgorica. Professor of international law at the University of Novi Sad, retired. He taught at the universities of Banja Luka, Beograd, Graz, Henan, Maribor, Niš, Pecs, Sapientia, Timișoara and Zhongnan. President of the International Law Section of the Kopaonik School of Natural Law 2005-2022. Vice-President of the Serbian Branch of the International Law Association. Legal Adviser at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia 1994-2000. Legal advisor at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia 2014 – 2016. He has participated in bilateral and multilateral negotiations and conferences, including the Dayton and Rambouillet Conferences.

Jean-François RENUCCI – Professor at the Faculty of Law - Université de Nice Sophia- Antipolis (France). Former Counsellor at the Department of External Relations, Monaco. Director - Centre d’Etudes sur les Droits Sud-Européens. Director - Centre d’Etudes Européennes sur les Droits de l’Homme. Author of several books, including Droit Européen des Droits de l’Homme (2002) and Code de Procédure Pénale - Convention Européenne des Droits de l’Homme (2006).

Florin STRETEANU – PhD in Law from the Babeș-Bolyai University in Cluj-Napoca. Professor at the Faculty of Law and Chancellor General of the Babeș-Bolyai University in Cluj-Napoca. Visiting Professor at the University of Limoges (France), the University of Reims (France), the University of Strasbourg III Robert Schumann (France), the International Faculty of Comparative Law (France) and the University of Zaragoza (Spain). Member of the International Association of Criminal Law and of the Society of Comparative Law.

Frédéric SUDRE – Professor at the Faculty of Law of the University of Montpellier I. Director of the Institute of European Human Rights Law (L’Institut de Droit Européen des Droits de L’Homme). He has published reference works in the field of law, including: Realité et perspectives du droit communautaire des droits fondamentaux (coord., 2000), La Convention européenne des droits de l’homme (2002), Le droit au respect de la vie familiale au sens de la Convention européenne des droits de l’homme (coord., 2002), Le ministère public et les exigences du procès équitable (coord., 2003), La diffusion du modèle européen du procès équitable (coord., 2003), Droit européen et international des droits de l’homme (translated by Polirom: Drept european și internațional al drepturilor omului).

Ineta ZIEMELE – Former judge at the European Court of Human Rights. She studied law at the University of Latvia and at the University of Cambridge. She was a Professor of International Law and Human Rights at the Faculty of Law in Riga. Former Programme Adviser at the Directorate-General for Human Rights of the Council of Europe.

Contributors to this issue

Cristi DANILEȚ – Lecturer at Petre Andrei University in Iași. Former judge from 1998 to 2024, specializing in criminal law. He is an activist for the independence and accountability of the judiciary, judicial reform, and the fight against corruption. In recent years, he has promoted legal education for children and young people through the association Voices for Democracy and Justice. He wrote the guide The Student and Law, trained teachers to teach optional law classes in schools and high schools, holds non-formal education lessons for teenagers, organizes visits for them to courts, invented the mobile phone application "Legen-Dar", organizes the yearly camp „Legal Academy” and contest "Be Legal! Be cool." He is the author of 13 books and over 30 scholarly articles.

Dezideriu GERGELY – Doctor of the Faculty of Political Science at the University of Bucharest. He is a certified trainer for the Council of Europe and the OSCE Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights on issues of non-discrimination and Roma issues before the European Court of Human Rights. He collaborates in professional training programs with the National Institute of Magistracy and the National Council of Magistracy. Senior legal advisor to the National Council for Combating Discrimination. He has collaborated as an expert with the Association for Development and Social Inclusion. Former director of the European Roma Rights Centre. Former member of the NCCD Board. Former lawyer for Romani CRISS-Roma Centre for Social Intervention and Studies.

Roland O. THOMASSON – Holds a PhD in Political Science from Indiana University (1997) and a BA in Government and Foreign Affairs from the University of Virginia (1988). He first traveled to Romania in 1987; he returned in 1990, 1991, and 1992; he conducted research for his dissertation (1993-1994, IIE Fulbright scholarship); he taught Political Science (IREX scholarship) and conducted research in 1997. From 1997 to 2000, taught Political Science at colleges in the US. From 2000 to 2024, served as an intelligence analyst for the Central Intelligence Agency. He has written extensively about the Romanian Revolution of December 1989 in academic journals in the US and the UK, as well as online. The views expressed in this article should not be interpreted as representing the views of any previous employer or grant-awarding body.

Corneliu-Liviu POPESCU - Professor of International, European, and Comparative Law and doctoral and postdoctoral supervisor at the Faculty of Law of the University of Bucharest and at the Franco-Romanian College of European Studies of University of Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne; lawyer at the Bucharest Bar and the Paris Bar; honorary consul of the Republic of Seychelles in Romania. Previously, he was: Romanian government agent at the European Court of Human Rights and member of the Romanian Diplomatic and Consular Corps; ad hoc judge at the European Court of Human Rights; independent expert and government expert with the Council of Europe.

* * *

The National Council for Combating Discrimination was established in accordance with the provisions of the Government Ordinance no. 137/2000 on the prevention and sanctioning of all forms of discrimination and has recently acquired, following the adoption of Law no. 324/2006, the status of state authority in the field of discrimination. The National Council for Combating Discrimination is autonomous, with legal personality, under parliamentary control and at the same time guarantor of the observance and application of the principle of non- discrimination. The National Council for Combating Discrimination is headed by a Board of Directors. The current president is CSABA Asztalos Ferenc.